Four Wauneta-Palisade Schools students performed in Class D All-State Honor Band on Saturday, March 24.

Jasmyn Smith, Cassidy Rathe, Landon Jutten and Wes Anderjaska made the trip to Kearney on March 24 to participate in the all-day clinic.

Students had to audition for the honor band by submitting a CD to clinic organizers.

The clinic includes a jazz band, a symphonic band of about 80 players and a wind ensemble of about 55 players. Each group presented a concert at the University of Nebraska at Kearney at the end of the day.

Anderjaska, Jutten and Rathe performed with the symphonic band and Smith participated in the wind ensemble.
