The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has announced its fall semester 2013 Deans' List for its eight colleges and the Honor Roll for undeclared students in the Explore Center.

Area students who qualified include Larissa Ann Wach, a junior in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. To qualify a student in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources must attain a 3.75 grade point average.

Daughter of Loran and Nancy Wach of rural Wauneta, she is majoring in agribusiness.
