On Sunday, July 3, the Chase County Historical Society will present an afternoon of patriotism.

At 2 p.m., the program will begin with the presentation of colors by VFW Post 4688 of Imperial, followed by the National Anthem by Sasheena Rowley and Morayah Cupp.

The opening ceremony will be followed by an afternoon of patriotic music provided by the United Methodist Gospel Band, Irvin and Garneta Bauerle, Melody Newman, Pat Baney and Kim Silvester.

A display table will be provided and museum guests are invited to bring any patriotic items to display for the afternoon.

Museum hours are 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday.
