

CWC in Wallace, mini music concert in Grant Saturday, Oct. 15

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Thursday, 06 October 2011 14:50 -

“Autumn Colors” will be in full bloom for the Christian Women’s Club on Saturday, Oct. 15. Beginning at 9 a.m. MT/10 a.m. CT at the Wallace Community Hall. The crowning glory of Fall will be celebrated with a mini music concert by Brenda Copeland from Bastrop, La.

Brenda will also be sharing her story of “How to be a Princess and Not Wear the Crown All Day!” She is a former Miss America Preliminary Winner and tells her story of going from a life of abuse to a life of peace.

She was born in Houston and began singing at age 3. She has traveled through life experiences with drugs, alcohol and spousal abuse and survived an emotional breakdown. She is a gospel recording artist, has two children and one grandchild. Tickets at the door are $5 and reservations can be made by calling Mary Vote at 308-387-4203 or by email to Mary at rmvote7@wirelessnet.net or Stephanie at jsa3fike@gmail.com

Free childcare is also available with reservations. Then at 12:30 p.m. MT/1:30 p.m. CT Brenda will be doing a mini music concert and sharing her story at New Life Fellowship Church, 617 W 4th in Grant. Tickets at the door will be $5.00 and reservations can be made by calling Donna Lundvall at 352-2439 or Wanda Poppe 353-1715. All reservations are needed by Oct. 13.

This is surely a program you won’t want to miss so plan to attend at Wallace or Grant and make your reservations today!