

Winners named in Champa's Harvest Fest digital photo contest

Written by Wauneta Breeze
Wednesday, 31 July 2013 21:05 -

Above, “Lightning” by Andy Hutchins took first place for People’s Choice in the general category during Champa Group’s digital photo contest. Below, “Bird of Paradise” by Peggy Goings took first place for People’s Choice in the flowers category. (Courtesy Photos)

By Sheri Hink-Wagner

The Wauneta Breeze

Winners named in Champa's Harvest Fest digital photo contest

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Wednesday, 31 July 2013 21:05 -

Voting in Champa Group's digital photo contest is always a challenge, with many good entries to choose from.

This year was no exception. The contest featured two categories, flowers and general. There were two rounds of voting in each category, critics' choice and peoples' choice.

Champa Group added a new twist to this year's contest by adding a digital video contest to the event. However, there were no entries in the video contest.

Rod Keiser said Champa Group will announce the category for next year's video contest earlier as well as provide some education on how to take an edit video prior to next year's contest.

Full results from the digital photo contest are listed below.

Flowers Category—Critic's Choice: 1st - Orange Lily by Marla Hamilton; 2nd - Day Lily by Marla Hamilton; 3rd - Monarch on Purple Flower by Marla Hamilton.

Flowers Category—People's Choice: 1st - Bird of Paradise by Peggy Goings; 2nd - Vinage Sunflower by Hannah Nordhausen; 3rd - Daisies by Tayler Nordhausen.

General Category—Critic's Choice: 1st - Lightning by Andy Hutchins; 2nd - Fish Out of Water by Sandy O'Neil; 3rd - Sunlight through Trees by Bo O'Neil.

General Category—People's Choice: 1st - Lightning by Andy Hutchins; 2nd - Twilight on Wauneta by Kathy Barger; 3rd - Rainbow by Hannah Nordhausen.