Tony Cribelli and Page Johnston have filed for re-election to the Wauneta Village Board in the past two weeks.

A total of three seats on the Wauneta Village board will be voted on in 2014 at the general election in November.

The seats to be filled are currently held by Tony Cribelli and Beau Kramer. The third seat is held by Page Johnston who was appointed to the board to fill Ted Grimm's position when Grimm passed away.

All three incumbents have filed for re-election. At this time there have been no other filers for the positions. Incumbents, those who hold any elected office, must file for the positions on the Wauneta Village Board by July 15. Non-incumbents have until Aug. 1 to file at the Chase County Clerk's office.
