

Annual West Central Cattleman's Series starts again

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Thursday, 10 November 2011 15:49 -

The annual West Central Cattleman's series will begin November 21. The first session will be at Ogallala Ne Nov 21 at the Quality Inn. This meeting will start at 5 pm MT. Two new locations have been added for the 2011-2012 season, Hayes Center and Goodland KS. The Hayes Center meeting is scheduled for Nov 22 at the Hayes County fairgrounds at 5pm CT. The Goodland KS meeting is scheduled for Dec 8 6pm MT at the fairgrounds.

Presentations that will be made include feed cost control, crop market update, pasture productivity, pasture weed control, cattle genetics and 3rd trimester cow nutrition. Each of the meetings has a $10 registration fee or $15 at the door. Meals are included in the registration fee.

The West Central Cattleman's Day is one of the premier opportunities for cattle producers to access the most up-to-date information on current management issues. For information and to register for the WC Cattleman's meetings call the Hayes County extension office at 308-286-3312 or Robert Tigner at 308-882-4731.