

Palisade native inducted into CSC Athletic Hall of Fame

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Thursday, 08 November 2012 17:12 -

Courtesy Photo

Libi Malone Susag, a native of Palisade who now lives at Scobey, Mont., was inducted into the Chadron State College Athletic Hall of Fame on Saturday, Oct. 27 during Homecoming. She was a two-time Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference shot put champion, was an All-American in the event twice and had the school record in the shot put both indoors and outdoors when she graduated in 1993. She and her husband Scott now farm and ranch and raise and train horses near Scobey. Just prior to her induction, she had competed in the barrel race at the Women's Professional Rodeo Association finals in Lincoln for the third consecutive year. Libi is shown with her parents, Judy and Gary Malone of Palisade, during the induction program.