

Junior high girls split wins at Perkins County

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Wednesday, 17 December 2008 20:46 -

---

The junior high girls basketball team split wins with Perkins County last Thursday in their season opener at Madrid.

The A team was defeated by Perkins County by a score of 22-11, putting their record at 0-1.

Taylor Lee scored six points for Wauneta-Palisade and Emma Skelton added four points. Cassidy Rathe contributed a free throw for a point.

The B team won their match, 13-7. Lee and Brooklyn Nordhausen both scored four points in that game.

Jasmyn Smith canned a trey to contribute three points and Rathe added two points.

The junior high boys and girls were in action at Medicine Valley on Tuesday afternoon.

We will have coverage of those games and the junior high boys game against Perkins County in next week's Breeze.