In his first meet ever for W-P, McGraw was second in the Informative category and was the Top Novice in the category.

The Oral Interpretation of Drama team placed third. Team members were Christner, Alberts, Lee, Strand and Rector.

W-P placed sixth out of 18 teams at the meet. Ogallala, Perkins County and North Platte St. Pat's finished first, second and third, respectively. Paxton was fourth and Wallace fifth.

Performing, but not placing, were Jutten and Hicks in Duet Acting, Christner in Serious Prose, Hunt in Humorous Prose and Hicks in the Extemporaneous division.

The speech season will continue throughout the month of February. The team will travel to Sutherland Saturday, then North Platte on Feb. 9, Ogallala Feb. 16 and McCook Feb. 23. Meets continue into March with Districts being held in Wauneta March 14.
