

Wauneta-Palisade Class of 2018

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Thursday, 08 May 2014 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 09 May 2014 20:40

Members of the eighth grade class were promoted Monday night. They walked in to the song, “Pompeii” by Bastille. They walked out to “Happy” by Pharrell Williams. Their class motto is, “Dream it, believe it, achieve it.” The class colors were black, lime green and silver. Their class flower was the rose. Class members include, front from left, Lanee Nordhausen, Treasurer, Natalie Ramirez, Vice-President, Alajandra Almanza, Kenna Ward, second row from left, Emily Day, Bethany Long, Faith Simpson, Jayden Ingold, Student Council Representative, third row from left, Reagan Skow, President, Lydia Echols, Haylee Dike, Destiny Mathews, Haley Kirk, back from left, Cash Yearous, Secretary, Matthew Knotts, Colton Barrett, Willis Christner. Not pictured: Sean McKay. (Sheri Hink-Wagner | The Wauneta Breeze)