January 7, 1960

Winter and 1960 came in together as six to eight inches of wet snow fell during the night. By midmorning more snow, accompanied by high winds, began to fall. Visibility was poor as many travelers began "jamming" into Wauneta with the Plains Cafe as the main "guest placement center," with everyone stranded given accommodations.

Joe Rietsch has been named as the winner of the Regent's Scholarship at the University of Nebraska. A total of 306 scholarships were given and Joe ranked among the upper third of winners.

Chester Graves and brother accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Graves to North Platte Sunday night and left by train for their home in Salem, Ore., after spending two weeks with parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graves and other relatives.

Frank Crapson of White Sands, N.M., Bill, Jane and Jim Crapson were Monday evening visitors in the Alfred Wach home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Weber and girls, Mr. and Mrs. George Whitman, Frances Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith enjoyed a waffle supper at the Howard Gibbons home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Walter Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Averill Hudnall and family of Imperial returned home after spending the past ten days in the V. E. Crawford home at Corpus Christi, Texas. They enjoyed Christmas dinner in the Crawford home, fishing in the gulf and a fish fry in the home of Mrs. Wheeler's grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Marloe Ripper.
