Courtney Beth Arenz and Brent Cory Criffield were united in marriage on Saturday, June 5, 2010, at The Frank House gazebo on the University of Nebraska-Kearney campus in Kearney, Neb. The Rev. Marshall Erickson officiated the outdoor ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Ed and Jo Arenz of Wauneta, Dick and Peggy Stacy of Kearney, and the late Bud Criffield.

Jacob Arenz, son of the bride, held the rings for the ceremony.

Other honored guests at the small ceremony were Jami Arenz, sister of the bride; Tim and Aliisa Criffield, brother and sister-in-law of the groom; Mark Stacy, brother of the groom; Kim Stacy, sister of the groom; Jay Bartels, friend of the couple; Teresa Erickson; and nieces and nephews of the couple, Kacie Arenz, Ansley Bartels, and Noah and Zachary Criffield.

Following the wedding ceremony, a dinner and small cake reception were held at The Alley Rose in Kearney.

The family resides in Kearney. Courtney is an Order Supervisor at School Mate, part of Morris Press, and Brent is a parts salesman at Sahling Kenworth, both in Kearney.

The couple is planning a reception to celebrate their marriage after the first of the year.
