Kari Marie Cole and Cody James Noble exchanged wedding vows on Sept. 10, 2011, at Slattery Vintage Estates Vineyard in Nehawka, Neb.

The bride is the daughter of Jean Cole of Funk, Neb., and the late Richard Cole. The groom is the son of Steve and Nancy Noble of Wauneta, Neb. Grandparents of the groom are Shirley Noble of Albion, Neb., and the late Earvin Noble, Phyllis Yoder of Wauneta and Will Yoder of Lincoln, Neb.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by Dennis Bergstrom, personal friend of Jean Cole. Maid of honor was Amber Glaser, bridesmaid was Ashley Oberg and personal attendant was Meghan Gull, all friends of the bride.

Jon Wiedemeyer was best man and Greg Gilliland was groomsman, both friends of the groom.

The bride's niece, Jacey Anderson, was the guest book attendant.

A reception and dance were also held at the vineyard following the ceremony. Host couple was Dustin and Jessica Noble of Gothenburg, Neb., brother and sister-in-law of the groom.

The couple enjoyed a honeymoon in Las Vegas and reside in Lincoln.
