Church of the Harvest in Olathe, Kan., was the setting for the March 16 wedding of Shana Wilson and Joseph Hlas.

Parents of the couple are Laddie and Anita Wilson of Olathe, Kan., and Harry and Gloria Hlas of Clutier, Iowa.

Pastor David Frech officiated the 6:00 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her dad and given in marriage by her parents, wore a soft white tulle ball gown with a floral sequin appliqued bodice. The skirt was of feathered detail with tiers of tulle and a chapel train. She chose an angel chapel length veil of delicate tulle.

Flower girls were Kaitlyn and Jadyn Kistner, nieces of the bride. They wore matching soft white dresses featuring a tank bodice and a full length ruffled organza skirt. A simple soft white satin sash accented the waist.

Caleb Hernandez, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Ushering the guests were Connor and Cale Brubaker, nephews of the bride, and Ben Proctor, nephew of the groom.

A buffet dinner reception and dance followed at LaJoie Events in Overland Park, Kan.

After a honeymoon to Maui the couple is making their home in Olathe, Kan.
