

ROOF!

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Friday, 12 October 2012 17:54 - Last Updated Friday, 12 October 2012 17:56

Lady Bronco volleyball players celebrate a block against Hitchcock County with the classic Nebraska “Roof.” From left are Abbie Fanning, Emma Skelton, Brianna Einspahr, Leiauna Alberts, Sydnee Harchelroad and Tailor Lee.

By Diane Stamm

The Wauneta Breeze

I once heard someone say, “Nobody celebrates like a volleyball team.”

I couldn’t agree more. Soccer comes close, but when you only score once or twice per game it’s got to be big.

In volleyball there’s a potential for a party with every point.

ROOF!

Written by Wauneta Breeze

Friday, 12 October 2012 17:54 - Last Updated Friday, 12 October 2012 17:56

Kill: whoop, holler, maybe a dance.

Ace: fist pumps and high fives all around.

Block: Arms in the air for the traditional Nebraska "ROOF."

I'm usually against celebrations. I'm more of a "act like you've been there" type person.

Touchdown and sack celebrations in football drive me nuts.

Basketball players chest bumping after dunks make me change the channel.

I don't know what's different about volleyball.

But I enjoy it.

On another note, I know the NSAA can sometimes be criticized for its scheduling tactics, but I'd like to thank whoever was in charge of the Broncos' football schedule this year. I don't know about the rest of you, but I was very grateful the team had a bye Friday night and we didn't have to stand around in the cold for the game.

As for this week, the game against Elba-North Loup-Scotia will be played in Scotia.